

Terms of Use

Effective Date: Aug 21, 2024

By accessing the chatbots.seaspace.ai website (hereinafter referred to as the "site"), you expressly agree to the following legal terms and conditions for using this site.

The use of the content and functionality of the website is subject to the provisions of these website terms of use, with the relevant laws of the Republic of Croatia applying.

These pages have been prepared with all due care and are made in good faith solely for the purpose of providing information about SeaspaceAI, operated by the trade "Combined Web Technologies, Craft for Computer Programming, Consulting, and Related Activities" (hereinafter CWT). CWT does not guarantee, either directly or implicitly, the completeness or timeliness of the information contained on this website, nor on other websites, including third-party websites to which this site refers (hereinafter: Links).

All users accessing these pages use their content at their own risk. CWT shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, incidental, consequential, or any other damages arising from accessing, using, or inability to use these pages, or due to any errors or incompleteness in their content.

All individual elements of the website accessed, whether interactive or not, including trade names, trademarks, logos, and designs, are protected by appropriate intellectual property rights and belong to CWT and SeaspaceAI. Therefore, it is prohibited to extract, distribute, modify, copy, or in any way distort or misrepresent or transmit any such element.

The content or parts of the content of these pages may not be reproduced, distributed in whole or in part, or used in any other way for commercial purposes, nor in a way that may directly or indirectly cause damage to CWT, SeaspaceAI or third parties.

The content or parts of the content of these pages may only be used for individual user needs and non-commercial purposes, while respecting all copyright and related rights, proprietary rights, and all other intellectual property rights and any restrictions thereof, and any use of the pages or content is permitted only with the explicit consent/approval of CWT or SeaspaceAI.

All content of these pages is protected by copyright and related rights or other intellectual property rights, in accordance with relevant legislative regulations of the Republic of Croatia.

By accessing and using these pages, you accept and submit to the regulatory and substantive law of the Republic of Croatia as the exclusively applicable law for the application, interpretation, and legal effects in connection with any aspect related to the use, permissions, exclusions, and terms of use and application of these pages, as well as the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Republic of Croatia for any possible claims and disputes arising from the use of these pages or in connection with them.

The user of these pages accepts the rules and terms of use of the pages and all potential risks that may arise from their use, and agrees to use the content of these pages solely for personal needs and at their own risk.

Furthermore, CWT and SeaspaceAI is not responsible in any case for user activities involving misuse of the content of these pages, i.e., is not responsible for any damage that may arise to the user or any third party in connection with the use or misuse of the content of these pages.

These pages may also contain documents, data, information, as well as links to other third-party websites, which will be marked as such as much as possible.

CWT and SeaspacAI do not control the aforementioned third-party websites or their content, and completely disclaims responsibility regarding the use of information, documents, or the use of third-party websites in general.

CWT undertakes to respect the anonymity and privacy of users of these pages and will collect personal data of users, such as name, address, telephone number, or email address and other data, only if voluntarily provided by the user to CWT or SeaspacAI.

User data collected in this way will be used solely for the purpose of better understanding the needs and requirements of users, and CWT and SeaspacAI undertakes not to provide the said data without the explicit consent of the user.

CWT and SeaspacAI reserves the right to modify the content of these pages at any time and in any way, and is not responsible for any damage caused by changes. Also, CWT and SeaspacAI reserves the right to amend these Legal Terms and Conditions of Use without prior notice or special notification.
